H: Finally, I hacked into the system.

(Brady walks in)

B: STOP, (Criminal! Don't you know that's called a copyright infringement? Those writers worked hard on their music, and deserve to be paid for it.

H: Well, I had someone to help me, so they'll get away with it.

B: Actually they won't. They are facing the same penalties as you, because they helped you. You're going to pay a fine and get sent to jail.

H: NOOOOO!!!

(Brady leads Kayla out of room with hands behind her back)
